Outdoor Water Use Ban for ALL West Point Water System Customers Effective: Thursday , June 30th 2022 Duration: UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Effective 6/30/2022 and lasting until further notice, a ban on ALL outdoor water use is in effect due to high demand and low storage tank levels.

Outdoor water activities that are PROHIBITED include, but are not limited to:

- The use of water sprinklers, hoses or any lawn, garden or landscape watering devices and/or activities
- The use of water for irrigation or fertilization purposes
- The use of water for washing vehicles & boats
- No other unnecessary uses of water: watering plants, hosing down driveways, walks, decks
- ABSOLUTELY NO filling of swimming pools

If you are found to be using water outdoors, Lakes Region Water Company may disconnect service without further notice.

We understand this is an inconvenience, but your cooperation is absolutely necessary to protect & preserve your water supply.

Thank you all in advance for your patience and understanding.
